U of T Libraries’ Role in Supporting Undergraduate Research

Heather Buchansky, Student Engagement Librarian
Tim Neufeldt, Instruction Librarian, Music Library
How the library currently supports undergrad research

Outside the course environment:

1. UTL Undergraduate Research Prize (deadline April 18!)
2. Research Days / Showcases (at the dept or faculty level)
3. Student journal publishing support
4. Entrepreneurship research
How the library can support in-course undergrad research

1. Assignment design ideas (through online exhibits)

2. Research Guides (aka ‘LibGuides’)

3. Online modules in LME

4. In-class workshops

Remember to contact your liaison librarian early in the course or assignment design process
